Yellow warning
Rain

Between 14:00 Wed 18 Oct 2023 and
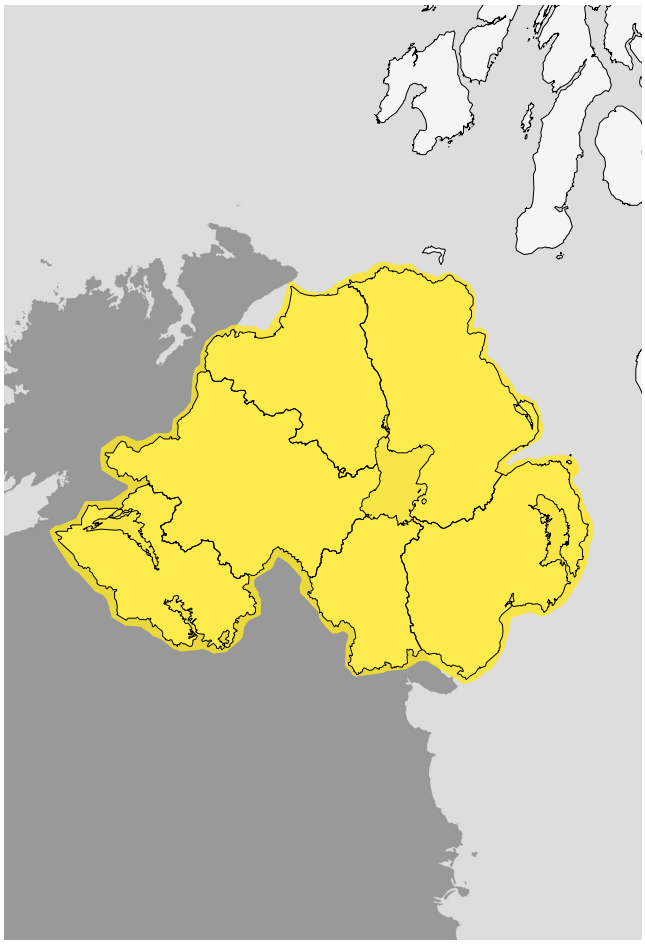
10:00 Thu 19 Oct 2023



Storm Babet will bring some heavy rain to Northern Ireland from Wednesday afternoon to Thursday morning, with possible disruption

What to expect

- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Where flooding occurs, there is a chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- There is a small chance of fast flowing or deep floodwater, and communities being cut off by flooded roads
- There is a slight chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

Rain is expected to develop during Wednesday afternoon, turning heavy and possibly prolonged in places overnight and into Thursday morning, before easing. Rainfall across Northern Ireland will be quite variable, with highest accumulations perhaps focused over Antrim and Down, particularly over The Mournes, but with a second area of heavier rainfall further west. 30-50 mm of rain could fall in these areas, and a few places over higher ground in the east could see 75-100 mm .

Very low likelihood of medium impacts
